Kevin's Korner

Summer is here! Not only have we had some warm temperatures in the past few days, but also we've seen the arrival of June 20th, which, this year, is the official first day of summer and the longest day of the year so far as sunshine is concerned.

So we have some summertime events coming up. Our annual fireworks at the Williams' house is Wednesday, July 29th after evening services. That should be a great time for getting together. I'm looking forward to the homemade ice cream myself.

Some of us are going on vacations; some near and some far. The Rollers had me out to their fifth wheel up at the Mill Creek campground in Missouri this past Monday afternoon. We had a lovely time and I certainly enjoyed their hospitality.

The main article that I have in this issue was originally written in response to the question: What must a person know to be saved? These are things that I would want someone that I was studying with to know before I baptized them. That's not to say that another person may have fewer items that they want to teach or more items that they want to teach, but given Jesus' concern over counting the cost in Luke 14:28 I would think that it would be better to give someone more information than not enough. Anyway, I've published it here in order to help any who need a guide to studying the Bible with someone who is not a Christian. Please feel free to use it in that way.

- 46. That there was a temporary organization to initially build the church and that there is a permanent organization for the ongoing activities of the church (Ephesians 4:7-16).
- 47. That part of the temporary organization of the church were men directly inspired by God, apostles, prophets, and others inspired to do other things (Ephesians 4:11,12, 1 Corinthians 13:8-10)
- 48. That they completed their work and left a perfect pattern (seed) for all additional churches to follow (2 Timothy 2:2).
- 49. That when this pattern (seed) is followed, we will have what they intended for us to have (2 Timothy 1:13, Luke 8:11, 1 Peter 1:23).
- 50. That the permanent organization for the church is left in this pattern (1 Timothy 3:15).
- 51. That this permanent organization consists of elders and deacons in each congregation (1 Timothy 3:1-13, Titus 1:5-9).

“When this pattern (seed) is followed, we will have what the apostles intended for us to have (2 Timothy 1:13, Luke 8:11, 1 Peter 1:23).”
